

Workshop on Computational Oncology

Multiscale Cancer Modeling and Computational Drug Discovery

9th - 11th April, 2026 | THSTI, Faridabad

Organized by

ट्रांसलेशनल स्वास्थ्य विज्ञान
एवं प्रौद्योगिकी संस्थान
TRANSLATIONAL HEALTH SCIENCE
AND TECHNOLOGY INSTITUTE

In association with

Param Hansa Centre for Computational
Oncology, IISc Bangalore

Theme: Advances in Systems Oncology Modeling

The Computational and Mathematical Biology Centre (CMBC), THSTI, in collaboration with the Param Hansa Centre for Computational Oncology, IISc Bangalore, is organizing a Workshop on Computational Oncology, highlighting recent advances in systems-level cancer research. The workshop focuses on cancer systems modeling, omics-driven approaches including epigenetic, spatial, and single-cell analysis, and computer-aided drug design (CADD) with hands-on training using Schrödinger molecular modeling tools. Designed for students, researchers, faculty, and industry professionals, the workshop emphasizes interdisciplinary and translational cancer research.

Focus Areas

- Introduction to Systems Oncology
- Computational Modelling
- Epigenetic Remodeling
- Spatial and Single-Cell Analysis
- Computational Biophysics & Structure-Based Modeling (Schrödinger)

Speakers

Dr. Philip Maini
University of Oxford

Dr. Debasisa Mohanty
NII

Dr. Mohit Kumar Jolly
IISc

Dr. Ramray Bhat

Organizers

Patron

Prof. G. Karthikeyan
Executive Director, THSTI

Convenors

Dr. Samrat Chatterjee, Professor, THSTI
Dr. Shailendra Asthana, Principal Scientist-II, THSTI
Dr. Mohit Kumar Jolly, Associate Professor, IISc

Registration Details

Category	Registration Fee (without accommodation)
UG/PG Students*	Rs. 3000/-
PhD Scholars*	Rs. 5500/-
Postdocs	Rs. 7000/-
Faculty/Scientist	Rs. 9000/-
Industry	Rs. 11000/-

*On-campus accommodation will be provided to the shortlisted students @Rs.500/- per night.

Registration and abstract submission deadline:

28th Feb, 2026
